Aleene Madikians represents public and private sector clients through all stages of civil litigation primarily focusing on eminent domain and land use matters. She has advised numerous public agencies on complex property acquisitions for large public works projects shaping California's infrastructure, including rail projects, roads, highways, stadiums, public utilities and flood basins.

Aleene's experience includes working with expert witnesses, drafting pleadings, dispositive motions and written discovery, negotiating and litigating discovery disputes, managing large-scale electronic document reviews and productions, second chairing a trial and preparing cases for trial.

While in law school, Aleene served as a judicial extern to the Honorable Otis D. Wright II of the U.S. District Court, Central District of California.
